Dear Miss Parlow:

In as much as we have never met, I feel I have known you for about 20 years. When I studied with Mr. Undercheck, he used to mention your name. as early as 1941, - Mrs. Murel Adler, a slim, dark girl - concert pianist. who is now living in Denver, has mentioned your name many times. Your dear student ~~and~~ and my good friend Mr. Samuel Margolian was here two weeks ago. & we talked about you. I just wrote to tell him that you in a hospital, and I haven't heard from him as yet.

I wish you good health. The world is full of troubles and everyone has their share of troubles.

Put your trust in God. & everything will work out.

Try to forget your troubles to a certain extent & try to keep your mind occupied - read the Holy Bible

You will agree with me that some of the music by Sarasate,
Saint Saens, Bloch, Liszt, are all thoughtful, sad & melancholy.
All our Armenian church & folk music is sad, thoughtful, & melancholy. Therefore that should be enough proof to you that throughout the ages that life itself comes & goes like a dream and in itself is sad therefore try to condoleme yourself.

Last time Mr. Margolian was here, he said that perhaps you wanted to sell your beautiful Del Geso. I finally called Mr. Mammot, & he didn't think you wanted to sell it. If it has a beautiful deep rich tone like a ~~viole~~ ^{viola} & brilliance of a violin I can not blame you for not wanting to part with.

I am looking for a beautiful instrument to play on myself, & let some of my personal ~~for~~ friends borrow it & do concert with it. If I am lucky & if it is God's will I hope to own one some day. However I don't it ~~you~~ very much. I have no luck.

In a couple of weeks after I recover from my operations
we may drive to Niagara falls. if so I am going to visit you. I spent 18 weeks in a lovely Army Hospital &
I know just how you feel.

In the meantime if you feel a little better
drop me a few lines, telling me how you are getting along. Best of health to you have patience, and make the best of everything & keep up your courage.

Everyone knows you & what a fine
person you are.

Yours Truly
Harry Kazarian
